Monthly Newsletter – March Edition

The month of march now takes its bow,
With lessons learned and furrowed brows.
The chalkboard fades, the pages rest,

as we have given it our best.

the echoes of the classroom sigh,
as laughter lingers, waving by.
the bell that rang with morning light,
now tolls farewell—its last goodnight.

projects finished, tests are done,
moments filled with work and fun.
a chapter closed, yet not the end,
for april waits, our next new friend.

so here we stand with hearts so light,
march fades into the coming night.
with memories bright and knowledge deep,
until next month, these days we keep

Dear Parents,

As we conclude this important month, we reflect on the hard work, dedication, and achievements of our students. They have successfully completed their annual exams, received their results, and stepped forward into a new grade, marking another milestone in their academic journey.

With new books in hand and fresh uniforms, they embark on another year of learning and growth. Your unwavering support and encouragement have been instrumental in their progress, and we appreciate your partnership in shaping their future.

As we move ahead, let's continue to inspire and guide them, fostering a love for learning and resilience in every challenge they face.

Career Counselling Session for Grade 11 Students and Parents

A comprehensive career counselling session was conducted for Grade 11 students and their parents by Ms. Shruti Dahiya, an esteemed Career Counsellor on 16 March 2025. The session aimed to provide valuable insights into academic and career planning, helping students make informed decisions about their future.

Ms. Dahiya emphasized the importance of early career exploration, guiding students to start thinking about their aspirations and available opportunities. She provided detailed subject selection guidance, ensuring students align their academic choices with their career goals. Additionally, she helped them in identifying their strengths and interests, enabling them to make confident and well-informed decisions.

The session also covered university and career path insights, offering clarity on different educational routes, entrance exams, and global opportunities. Ms. Dahiya highlighted the significance of skill development, encouraging students to cultivate essential competencies beyond academics. Furthermore, she discussed networking opportunities, stressing the value of mentorship, internships, and professional connections in career growth.

Recognizing the stress that students often face, Ms. Dahiya shared strategies for reducing pressure, promoting a balanced approach to academics and career planning. The interactive session allowed students and parents to ask questions, ensuring a deeper understanding of their options.

The session was highly informative and well-received, equipping students with the knowledge and confidence to make thoughtful career choices. Parents also appreciated the insights, as they play a crucial role in guiding their children. The school looks forward to organizing more such sessions to support students in their academic and professional journeys.

Women's Day Special Workshop: "Financial Independence for women"

On the occasion of International Women's Day, Professor's Global School collaborated with SEBI (Securities and Exchange Board of India) to organize a special webinar for teachers on March 8, 2025. The session aimed to empower women by equipping them with essential knowledge about financial independence and effective money-saving strategies for the future.

Objective of the Workshop:

The primary focus of the workshop was to educate and guide women, particularly teachers, on:

- The importance of financial independence.
- Smart saving and investment strategies.
- Managing personal finances for a secure future.

Key Speaker:

The session featured Ms. Himani Lath, a SEBI Smart Trainer, who provided expert guidance on financial planning, investment options, and strategies for achieving economic security.

Workshop Highlights:

The session began with an inspiring address by Ms. Himani Lath, in which she emphasized how financial independence contributes to overall empowerment. She conducted an interactive session, teaching attendees about various investment options such as mutual funds, fixed deposits, and retirement plans. Additionally, she shared practical tips on budgeting, saving, and risk management. Teachers actively participated in discussions, posing insightful questions about investment planning and financial security.

Conclusion:

The webinar successfully imparted valuable financial knowledge to teachers, helping them take significant steps toward achieving financial independence. The initiative was well-received, encouraging educators to be more proactive in planning for their financial futures. The event was conducted virtually via Zoom, with participants required to register through a provided link. This session marked an important step toward raising financial awareness, ensuring that women, especially educators, are well-prepared for a secure and independent future.

Academic Workshop

Date: March 29, 2025

Venue: Professor's Global School

Organized by: [S.Chand Publications]

On March 29, 2025, a workshop was conducted at Professor's Global School by a renowned publisher to provide valuable insights into the latest editions of English, Mathematics, and Science books.

The session was attended by teachers from various departments who actively participated in the discussion.

The workshop aimed to familiarize educators with the updated curriculum, new teaching methodologies, and the enhanced content of the textbooks. The publisher's representatives elaborated on the key features of the books, including:

- The alignment of content with the latest educational standards.
- Interactive and engaging activities included in the books to enhance student learning.

- Supplementary resources and digital tools available for better teaching outcomes.

Teachers had the opportunity to clarify their doubts and provide feedback regarding the books. The discussion emphasized how these updated materials would benefit students by making learning more engaging and conceptually strong.

Overall, the workshop was highly informative and beneficial for teachers, equipping them with the necessary knowledge to effectively utilize the new textbooks in their classrooms. Such initiatives contribute significantly to improving the quality of education and keeping educators updated with the latest trends in teaching and learning.

Let's bid farewell to the year gone by,
A journey of hard work, reaching high.
With lessons learned and goals achieved,
In every challenge, we believed.

Results and efforts tell our tale,
Of dreams pursued without fail.
Now a new year stands in sight,
Filled with hope, so bold and bright.

Welcome, 2025-26, with promise anew,
A canvas wide for dreams to pursue.
With hearts inspired, we rise once more,
To learn, to grow, to strive and soar!
